

Summary of Privacy Practices

DR. Yezerski

This summary of our Privacy Practice contains a condensed version of our Notice of Privacy Practices. The Privacy Practice Policy in its entirety is posted at the reception desk as required by Federal Law. If you would like to review the entire policy simply ask the receptionist for a copy.

This Notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

We understand that your medical information is personal to you, and we are committed to protecting the information about you. As our patient, we create medical records about your health, our care for you, and the services and/or items we provide to you as our patient. By law, we are required to make sure that your protected health information is kept private.

How will we use or disclose your information? Here are a few examples (for more detail please refer to the Notice of Privacy Practice that follows this summary):

- For medical treatment
- To obtain payment for our services
- In emergency situations
- For appointment and patient recall reminders
- To run our Practice more efficiently and ensure all our patients receive quality care
- For research
- For organ and tissue donation
- To avert a serious threat to health or safety
- For workers' compensation programs
- In response to certain requests arising out of lawsuits or other disputes

If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may file a complaint with the Practice or with the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services. To file a complaint with the Practice, contact our office manager. All complaints must be submitted in writing, you will not be penalized for filing a complaint.

You have certain rights regarding the information we maintain about you. These rights include:

- The right to inspect and copy
- The right to amend
- The right to an accounting disclosure
- The right to request restrictions
- The right to a paper copy of this notice
- The right to request confidential communications

IF YOU REQUEST SPECIFIC INFORMATION REGARDING OUR PRIVACY PRACTICE ASK THE RECEPTIONIST FOR A COPY OF THE ENTIRE POLICY.
